

School News:

Foundation Work

I am so proud of the work our Foundation students are doing. Just before recess this morning, three very excited students came up to show me their writing and enthusiastically read their work to me. How amazing... these children have only been at school for six weeks.
Lyn Truran

